

Dribbling through history. . .

Italian
basketball
tour

July 2017

Italian
basketball
tour

3

historical venues

ROME

BOLOGNA

PERUGIA & ASSISI

A country of art, genius...and basketball!

NOT ONLY the core of the great ROMAN EMPIRE; Italy has given birth to ESSENTIAL pieces of modern society as we know it today: PC, TELEPHONE, MULTI-FUNCTION GYM MACHINE, and 3-D PRINTER, to mention a few...

THE single country with most UN WORLD HERITAGE ATTRACTIONS:

49 in total

A LONG-LASTING BASKETBALL TRADITION: WINNINGEST nation for Euroleague titles, 2 European Championships and 2 OLYMPIC SILVER MEDALS among dozens of international titles at senior and youth levels

BOLOGNA - a.k.a. Basketball City

Honoring its nickname, its two
main local teams (Virtus and Fortitudo) boast Euroleague titles and 17 national titles

Hometown of 2014 NBA
champion and 3-pt
shootout winner

Marco Belinelli

Birthplace of university
education as we know
it today

Home of THE
tortellini, lasagna,
and ragù

PERUGIA

Home of the largest & most prestigious international university in Italy

Host of the Umbria
Jazz Festival -
among top jazz
festivals in the world

Where the world
famous chocolate,
Bacio Perugina,
was born

ASSISI

UN World Heritage Site: its basilica of St. Francis is a must-see and
fundamental tile of art history

Take it all the way to ROME

2500 years old, host of the first Modern Olympics, ancient palm trees and pine trees side-by-side... Still wonder why they call it the Capital of the World?

Think you'll run out of time? Keep in mind the Coliseum, Roman Forum, Trevi Fountain, Spanish Steps, Pantheon, and "Wedding Cake" are all in the space of only

1.5 miles!

So relax...

A toast in Rome? Ancient Romans drank as many glasses as the letters in their name! But don't drive afterwards unless your name's Ed...

NOT ENOUGH? - Here's what you'll get

Full-comfort
hotels

Facilities
available for extra
practice sessions
upon request

4 or more games vs.
senior or U20 national teams, top level all-
star selections

Additional tours
upon request + a day at the beach

ARE YOU READY TO DRIBBLE THROUGH HISTORY???

